

Lending Your Voice for Let It Go

Tuesday 19 December 2017

St Vincent's Hospital Melbourne (Public Hospital)

27 Victoria Parade, Collingwood

© Michael Leunig

Join us:

- to sing together a simple, beautiful song, written for choir, about the power of letting go,
- to raise awareness of brain cancer, its impact, and what we can do to help,
- to recognise the great work of Melbourne's St Vincent's Hospital Foundation.

We encourage you to bring a gold coin donation for a worthy cause but most of all to lend your voice in support of support the hospital's healing tune.

Arrival and registration: 1.15pm-1.30pm (choir members, SVHM nursing and other staff)

No concert dress or formal dress code - just come as you are!

1: Rehearsal of Let it go (30 mins)

Timing: 1:30-2:00pm (1.55pm – group photo!)

Venue: Brenan Hall, 27 Victoria Parade, Aikenhead Wing (Ground floor)

2: Performance of Let it go (6 mins) with explanation of meaning (5mins)

Timing: 2:00-2:15pm

Venue: St V's Courtyard / Main Hospital foyer (if raining)

3: Performance of Let it go (6 mins) with explanation of meaning (5mins)

Timing: 2:15-2:30pm

Venue: 10 West for performance in foyer / next to Leunig print

Event concludes by 2.30pm

Questions? Please contact Jacqueline Ford on 9231 4581 or email jacqueline.ford@svha.org.au

Further project info: www.stvfoundation.org.au | www.benleskemusic.com